Hiring Manager
Verbit
New York, NY 10016

Dear Hiring manager,

I am excited to apply for the position of Remote Ruby On Rails Developer at Verbit. The opportunity to be part of a team that is revolutionizing the transcription and translation industry with innovative Web-scale SaaS solutions aligns perfectly with my passion for creating high-performance services and contributing to dynamic projects.

With over 3 of experience in Ruby on Rails development, I have honed my skills in building cloud-based solutions using AWS and working with complex database queries. My dedication to debugging and analyzing logs has helped me optimize system performance, ensuring low latency and high availability for users.

What truly sets Verbit apart is the commitment to accessibility and inclusivity. The vision of making all video and audio content accessible to everyone resonates deeply with me, and I am eager to contribute my skills to such a meaningful mission.

I am a team player with excellent interpersonal skills, and I thrive in fast-paced startup environments. As a tech-savvy individual, I am always eager to embrace new growth opportunities and challenge myself to outperform past results. I believe my ability to adapt, question, and innovate aligns perfectly with the culture at Verbit.

In my role as a Ruby On Rails Developer, I am excited to collaborate with cross-functional teams and contribute to the full software development life cycle, from conception to deployment. I am confident that my expertise and motivation will enable me to make valuable contributions to Verbit's ongoing success.

I am drawn to Verbit not only for the challenging work but also for the company's values and commitment to creating a supportive and inclusive workplace. The chance to work with talented individuals across various locations, and the flexibility to work remotely, further reinforces my enthusiasm to be part of the Verbit team.

Thank you for considering my application. I have attached my resume and links to my GitHub and LinkedIn profiles for your review. I am eager to discuss further how my skills align with Verbit's goals and contribute to the company's growth.

Looking forward to the possibility of joining Verbit and making a meaningful impact in accessibility and industry innovation.

Sincerely,

Isaac Pitwa Nyonyintono
